Welcome

art'otel berlin mitte

The gallery-like art'otel berlin mitte is dedicated to Georg Baselitz, one of the most famous contemporary German artists.

Guests to Berlin Mitte can spend some of their time enjoying his original works in all guest rooms and communal spaces. Our hotel has 109 rooms, including 14 suites.

Upside Down Bar & Restaurant

The Upside Down Bar & Restaurant is located within the Ermelerhaus, the historical section of the art'otel berlin mitte. The Upside Down Bar & Restaurant contains a wealth of original works from Georg Baselitz's "Upside Down" series, from which the restaurant derives its theme.

The Upside Down Bar & Restaurant's menu offers a selection of light and fresh snacks and small dishes that are ideal for sharing.

The listed Ermelerhaus

The mansion was constructed on Breite Straße in 1567, about 500 metres from here. The Ermelerhaus got its name from tobacco and cloth merchant F. W. Ermeler, who purchased the building in 1824. After being sold by his last grandchild, Richard Ermeler, ownership of the building transferred to the City of Berlin in 1914, and served as a branch of the Märkisches Museum before being converted into a council library in 1945. Berlin removed the property from Breite Straße in the mid-'60s brick by brick, and constructed a faithful replica at this very location. After being extensively renovated in the '90s, the rococo-style rooms now serve as a special place for weddings, company events, and many other occasions.
