Welcome to Park Hall Hotel & Spa:

Where Business Meets Excellence

A Heritage of Distinction

From its origins as a Benedictine monastery in 669 AD to its present-day status as Lancashire's premier conference venue, Park Hall Hotel and Spa represents a remarkable fusion of historical prestige and contemporary excellence. Following an extensive transformation, our venue now stands as a testament to sophisticated modern business facilities while maintaining its distinctive architectural character.

Why Choose Park Hall

- Versatile conference venues for 7–700 delegates
- Ideally located with excellent accessibility and transport connections
- Cutting-edge business amenities alongside exceptional leisure and thermal spa experiences
- A variety of dining options to suit every occasion
- Luxurious accommodation with 65 contemporary rooms and 54 characterful cottages
- Expert event management team providing personalised support throughout your event

Beyond Business

Our extensive 100-acre grounds, featuring a tranquil 5-acre lake, provide an inspiring backdrop for corporate events. The Park Hall Spa, with its hydrotherapy pool and fitness centre, offers executive relaxation, while the Signature Grill House and Mallard Bar deliver premium dining experiences.
