We shall render various services during the Event, including the accommodations in guest rooms, renting meeting and event rooms, providing equipment, food, and drinks, and other services ("Hotel Services").

If anything about the Event changes (such as the number of participants and guest rooms), you shall notify us in writing without undue delay. If the number increases, we shall use our best efforts to accommodate the additional participants. However, this cannot be guaranteed.

No food or drinks may be brought into the hotel or the facilities for consumption on the premises, except with our prior written consent.

Except with our prior written consent, you shall not install or use your own technical equipment. However, you may ask us to procure technical and other equipment from third parties on your behalf and for your account. We may charge you for the electricity costs incurred by using such equipment and collect a payment connected with the connection fee for using the IT systems. If we must render services or make payments to third parties because of the event, especially those based on the claims of performing rights societies (such as GEMA), you shall bear those costs as well.

We shall be liable for loss, destruction, or damage connected with such equipment only in the event of gross negligence or intent. Any equipment and objects brought in must comply with the fire protection regulations. We may demand official proof of this.

Your use of our Facilities and Hotel Services must comply with the contract as well as national and local statutes and regulations. All catering services (such as extending the opening times of the bar) must be confirmed and approved by us in writing before the date of the Event. 12. Applicable law; Forum

This contract is governed by Swedish law. All disputes, controversies, and claims arising from or in connection with this contract will be settled amicably between us and you. If we cannot reach an amicable agreement and you are an entrepreneur, the exclusive forum is the location of the hotel.

13. Force majeure

If a force majeure event occurs, the contract in full or in part can be postponed or otherwise amended by both parties. Force majeure is always constituted if an unforeseeable and unavoidable event occurs for which we are not responsible. Force majeure must be determined on a case-by-case basis, but typically includes events such as war, revolutions, natural disasters, fire, earthquakes, floods, strikes, statutory provisions, measures taken by authorities, terrorism, epidemics and pandemics (such as COVID-19), and resisting arrest. You are not entitled to any cancellation at no charge as a result if you can reasonably be expected to accept the changes, accept contract amendments arising therefrom and support during rebooking. With the agreement of the hotel the event can be postponed by 365 days.

If we or you cannot hold or attend the Event based on travel recommendations, such as the physical separation recommended by the World Health Organization (WHO) or similar institutions, we and/or you may postpone the Event to a later time within the coming 12 months with no contract penalty. If the Event is postponed, the cancellation terms originally set forth in the contract will apply to the postponed Event.

14. Regulation on travel packages

EU LAW:

If you select and pay for one travel service, then book additional travel services for your trip through our company, you will NOT benefit from rights applying to travel packages pursuant to Directive (EU) 2015/2302.

Therefore, our company is not responsible for the proper rendering of such additional travel services. If you have any problems, please contact the respective service provider.

If you book additional travel services during the same visit to our company or during the same contact with them, however, those travel services will become part of the associated travel services. In this case, we have the security prescribed pursuant to EU law for reimbursing your payments to us for services that our insolvency kept us from rendering. Please note that this does not provide a refund if the respective service provider is insolvent.

We have taken out insolvency protection with the relevant insurance company of the hotel.

The travelers may contact this institution or, if applicable, the competent authority (contact data, including name, geographic address, email, and telephone number) if they are refused travel services due to our insolvency.

Note: This insolvency protection does not apply to contracts with parties other than us that can be performed despite our company's insolvency. https://commission.europa.eu/strategy-and-policy/policies/justice-and-fundamental-rights/civil-justice/civil-and-commercial-law/insolvency-proceedings_en
