• TEA SELECTION •

Garden Berries

Berries reminiscent of tranquil summer days, lovely and fruit-filled. The clear crispness of green tea's finest leaves is alluring. A beautiful marriage of complementary flavours.

Milk Oolong

Tie Guan Yin Oolong tea, or the 'iron goddess of mercy', as it is known in China, combined with sweet and creamy milk. Layered, fabulously floral.

Black Tea Cranberry

The favourite fruit of the Native North Americans, brightly coloured and symbolic, beautifully blended with exquisite black tea.

Rooibos Tiramisu

The layered nuttiness of Rooibos brilliantly blended with barley malt, dark and white chocolate. Naturally caffeine-free, a rich and indulgent dessert in a cup.

Green Sencha

Early spring harvest. Lovingly steamed, dark green leaves that flourish when infused. Sencha is the most popular green tea in Japan: timeless.

Black Tropical

Hearty black tea beautifully balanced with the tropical taste of papaya and coconut, the citrus kick of orange and the floral song of marigold petals.

Earl Grey

Legendary tea with origins spanning from China to Howick Hall in Northumberland. Named after British Prime Minister Earl Grey and combined with bergamot orange in the British tradition.

English Breakfast

Originally Scottish and served at Balmoral Castle in the Highlands. The favourite blend of Queen Victoria, it endures as one of the world's most celebrated black teas. Reviving and robust.

Jasmine Blossom

Spring-plucked green leaves with layer upon layer of fragrant jasmine blossoms, exquisitely infused into the tea. Delicate and beautifully floral.

Gunpowder

Pearl tea, in its native tongue, rolled into tightly formed pebbles. Well-loved for centuries from China to Morocco. A taste of history, with a mild smokiness.

Lavender Dream

The lavender of Solomon's Song, an inextricable element of holy essence, blended with green tea and a kiss of lemongrass. Superbly refreshing.

Silver Needle

A fine white tea from China's Fujian Province, delicate and slightly creamy with a honey-melon aroma.

Decaf English Breakfast

A full-bodied, fine black tea with all the rich, malty character of the classic blend.

Lapsang Souchong

A dark chocolate-coloured black tea with a sweet aroma and layered taste.

Darjeeling

India's Himalayas ascend towards the heavens and on their slopes, a light floral tea is cultivated by sweet and clear mountain air. A black tea produced in a famed region, a pale-amber cup with a delicate fruity nose and a hint of muscatel grape.

Ceylon

Sri Lanka's mild sea breezes and temperate island climate produce fine Ceylon teas with a wonderfully balanced flavour that have been enjoyed around the world since the 19th century. A refreshing citrus taste and a full, spicy finish.

Masala Chai

The Indian tradition of blending black tea leaves with exotic spices: cardamom, clove, cinnamon and black pepper. Vibrant, complex and warming to the soul.

Rooibos Breakfast

A lovely caffeine-free breakfast blend. Rooibos, endemic to South Africa's Cederberg region, complemented by lush mangoes, tart currants, tangy oranges and spicy sandalwood.

Assam

Leaves shaped by heat waves and the deluge of monsoons. Bright chestnut in colour with an aroma of malt and hints of walnuts and molasses.
